

PACC got major awards in TIHK Tax Debate Competition 2018

The Taxation Institute of Hong Kong (the Institute) held the Institute's Tax Debate Competition (Debate) at Plaza Hollywood Kowloon during 26 - 27 May 2018 (Saturday and Sunday).

The School is excited to announce that a team of 4 PACC students have just won the Champion and one of the team members, PANG Chak Yi, also got the Best Debater Award. Dr. Edmund Wong (PACC Program Director), Mr. Eric Leung (PACC Associate Program Director) and Ms. Karen Li (the coach teacher of this competition) were in the event to provide full support to our students.

The Competition is aimed to promote the study of taxation and arouse students' awareness of the tax profession as another choice in their career development upon graduation, the Debate had succeeded in encouraging students to express their opinions on hot tax topics and attracting public audience when it was first held in 2015. The Panel of Judges included elites from business, tax practitioners, professional bodies and academics.

